

Project Manager with German or English

Localization: Wroclaw, Lodz, Warsaw

Job Reference: 78867

What will you be responsible for

- Lead internal and external IT software development projects from beginning to the end,
- Define project scope, goals and deliverables that support business goals in collaboration with senior management and stakeholders
- Support project acquisitions and business case developments – support sales and bid management teams, coordinate of project requirements analysis and quotations;
- Initiate and set up projects in line with Atos Project Management, Software delivery and Service transition methods;
- Develop full-scale project plans
- Build and manage Project Teams (recruit, develop work plans, coordinate team and sub-team activities);
- Actively follow delivery phase of the project, ensuring proper communication within the team, monitor progress and quality of work delivered;
- Communicate with project stakeholders, manage expectations on project deliverables;
- Manage and monitor project constraints – schedule, scope and costs;
- Monitor and report project performance, progress and risk status;
- Record and promote experience acquired in the project.
- Travel to customer locations.

What do we require

- Master's degree preferably in area of IT technologies;
- Minimum 3 years of experience as Project Manager;
- Demonstrated track record in delivering IT projects in International environment;
- Good technical knowledge across various IT areas;
- Strong practical knowledge of common project management methods and standards (PMI PMBOK®, SCRUM, AGILE PM), PMP® certification preferred;
- Excellent interpersonal, communication skills and presentation skills, ability to effectively maintain relationship with stakeholders using remote tools;
- Fluency in written and spoken English or German

What do we offer

Remote working

Relocation allowance

MyBenefit system

Private medical care
incl. dental care

Referral bonus

Worldwide career opportunities

Training and development programs (incl. foreign languages)

Private life and travel insurance

Commuting contribution